

I am stunned that you allow a broadcasting company to abuse its resources for political gain. The "news program" that Sinclair plans to broadcast is propaganda and proves what has been suspect for some time, Sinclair is a political organization. It should not be allowed to masquerade as a broadcasting company.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.
